Actic recruits Jörgen Fritz as new CFO

Actic Group has recruited Jörgen Fritz as new CFO. Jörgen joins Actic from a role as partner at PrimeQ. He has previously been CFO at Filippa K and Medstop as well as for Unibail-Rodamco's Nordic operations.

"We are very pleased to be able to recruit Jörgen Fritz, after a wide process, as new CFO. With his deep expertise in finance, accounting and financial management, combined with his experience from various companies, he becomes an important part of Actic's future business and the ambition to develop in accordance with the set targets", says Christer Zaar, President and CEO of Actic Group.

Jörgen Fritz, born 1967, will be part of Actic Group's management and will take up his new position in May 2018.

PrimeQs business concept is to offer innovative, packed products and services within IT, finance and management, with the ambition of being a one-stop-shop for companies and organisations.

About Actic

Actic (formerly Nautilus Gym) was founded in 1981 and launched the Gym & Swim club concept. The company began its international expansion in 1995 and as per 31 December 2017, Actic had 178 facilities and over 225,000 members in five countries. Actic's main markets are Sweden, Norway, Finland as well as Germany and Austria. Actic offers a well-established exercise method known as high-intensity training (HIT) and offers its members personal training programmes including follow-up sessions with trained instructors. Together with swimming, this forms the core of Actic's offering and differentiates us in the market.

Actic's vision is to create a healthier society by attracting a broad target group and thereby expanding the market. The facilities engage in the local community to contribute to a healthier society. Actic, which has its head office in Solna, Stockholm, has approximately 750 full-time equivalent employees and had net sales of SEK 881 million in 2017. Actic is led by its President and CEO Christer Zaar.
