Change in Actic Group's Executive Management

Glenn Lingebrand, Head of Sales and Market, leaves Actic Group's Executive Management. CEO Anders Carlbark will until further notice act as Acting Marketing Manager. The recruitment process for appointing a newly established role as Head of Brand and Communication starts immediately.

Glenn Lingebrand took over the role as Head of Sales and Market in 2013, and he has had a central role in developing and establishing the Actic brand. We are now starting a recruitment process regarding a newly established role as Head of Brand and Communication and are looking for a creative, data-driven and customer-focused communicator who wants to participate in building Actic's brand within training and health, says Anders Carlbark, CEO of Actic Group.

Glenn Lingebrand will leave his position in April but will be available to the Group in the coming quarter.

About Actic

Actic (formerly Nautilus Gym) was founded in 1981 and launched the Gym & Swim club concept. The company began its international expansion in 1995 and as per 31 December 2018, Actic had 178 facilities and over 220,000 members in four countries. Actic's main markets are Sweden, Norway and Germany. Actic offers a well-established exercise method known as high-intensity training (HIT) and offers its members personal training programmes including follow-up sessions with trained instructors. Together with swimming, this forms the core of Actic's offering and differentiates us in the market. Actic's vision is to create a healthier society by attracting a broad target group and thereby expanding the market. The facilities engage in the local community to contribute to a healthier society. Actic, which has its head office in Solna, Stockholm, has approximately 800 full-time equivalent employees and had net sales of SEK 941 million in 2018. Actic is led by its President and CEO Anders Carlbark.
