

PRESS RELEASE

March 12, 2020

ACTIC Group has decided to temporarily close down all sites i Norway

Actics vision is "A heathier society through training" and employees and members safety is the number one priority of the company. Actic follows authority guidelines and shuts down all sites in Norway due to the spread of COVID-19.

The temporary closing of sites starts from 18:00 the 12th March 2020 and until further notice. To enable training despite the current situation Actic will share inspiration for training at home or outdoors, not only for Actic members but for the general public.

Actic follows the authority guidelines and sites in Sweden, Germany and Austria are therefore not concerned by this decision.

Actic has no prognosis for the financial effect of the current events and will share information as soon as possible. Actics net sales in Norway amounted to approximately 167 MSEK in 2019.
